

HRM-108 - Becoming an HR Business Partner

Description

The telecom industry is in constant evolution, both in terms of the market trends and in terms of the human resources required by operators and regulators to face fierce competition. The HR function has a key role in the company's strategy and it is thus essential that the concept of 'HR Business Partner' be understood by human resources personnel. The challenge is to identify how the HR function can contribute to the creation of value for the company. This 3-day Training Course provides participants with the competences and tools required to successfully implement the 'HR Business Partner' approach. During the course, participants work on numerous practical workshops to develop their capacity to manage HR to successfully contribute to company's strategy and value.
